CHICAGO, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1899.

MUDLARKS' DAY.

The Harlem Association seems to be on the outs with the weather man and he seems to soak it to them every chance that he gets. The track was drying out nicely Friday morning and everything pointed to fast going for today but at noon a steady rain set in and kept up all the afternoon. Consequently the track is now more like a mud hole than a racecourse.

The attendance does not seem to be affected to any great extent by the miserable weather and the crowd yesterday numbered over 4,000. Of course, the racing was tame and winners very hard to pick.

Evidently the chilly weather has put the horsemen to thinking about feed for the winter, for the entries were enormous. Particularly large were the fields in the first and second events, thirty-two being the total of both—eighteen starts in the second and fourteen in the first. In both of these events "good things" were numerous, but it is safe to say that the ring profited, as neither of the winners were backed to any great extent.

The first was at three-quarters of a mile for two-year-olds, and The Rush, owned by the Schorrs and ridden by T. Burns, won rather easily. It was a lucky win, however, for Brownie Anderson, the favorite, was much the best, and it was only Conley's slowness in getting away from the post and bad racing luck generally that beat her. As it was, the filly ran a very good, game race, and was beaten only three-quarters of a length by the winner.

It was write your own ticket on everything but Andes in the second race. He, with Burns up, was an even money choice in an eighteen horse race. Andes seemed to far outclass the lot he was in with, but at that the price was altogether too short and those that backed him displayed bad judgment. Andes looked good, but he did not run that way and finished beaten off. He broke eighth, but moved up to third place on the backstretch and until the three-eighths post was reached he had a chance to win. But when Burns called upon him he had nothing left to respond with and the jockey, after punching him for a sixteenth of a mile, eased him up. Fantasy, ridden by the midjet Dominick, won the race running away. Fantasy is a good-looking chestnut filly by Fonso—Eva S., and is consequently a full sister to B. J. Johnston's once famous racehorse Rudolph. A few old-timers who noticed the breeding of Fantasy played her through sentiment and profited richly, as the filly was at some stages of the betting as good as 50 to 1.

Mr. William McGuigan's Tulane came to life with a start in the third race and at a juicy price came within an ace of landing. Tulane's last race was so bad that the form players threw him out entirely in their calculations. He certainly outclassed the bunch that he was in with but the fact that an inferior maiden like Ramlet had beaten him so far the last time he started led the public to believe that the colt was of no account. Evidently McGuigan thought differently as he had Burns to ride. But even with Burns up the public refused to back Tulane and the colt's price drifted from 3 to 1 to 5 to 1 but was then backed down to 4 to 1. He had speed galore and lay second head and head with Tappan to the stretch turn and for an instant it appeared that he was going to win but Tappan proved to possess the most stamina and landed the purse by a neck.

Molo, with top weight up and favorite at 9 to 5, came home by himself a very easy winner in the fourth race. He is an exceptionally good mud runner and as Overton took no chances with him he had no trouble in winning by eight lengths. Intriguer, who finished second, ran a fine race after being badly interfered with on the first turn.

Decoy, ridden by Burns, captured the long end of the purse in the fifth event. He got off fourth and was never better than second until the stretch was reached. Then he galloped over Miss Fee as though she was tied and eventually won as he pleased.

It was a very hard task to see the horses in the last race so thick was the fog. DAILY RACING FORM, however, had scouts out on all the turns and consequently the race is accurately reported. Damocles got a flying start, but was outrun down the backstretch by Eva Wilson. The latter is not game and under pressure in the stretch she gave way to Damocles and he won in a canter.

There will be an auction sale of horses in training in the paddock at Harlem today, at 12:30 p. m. They are the property of E. T. Graves, James Arthur and M. T. Danaher.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A member of the Jockey Club, a constant attendant at the races for many years, who is not only one of the best informed men of the day as to turf matters, but a close observer as well, disagrees with the opinion so frequently expressed this summer that our two-year-olds are a bad lot. In commenting upon the subject recently, he said: "It's the fashion to decry our two-year-olds, and this year more than ever so. Personally, I think this year's crop is an exceptionally good one, reminding me of the year 1891, in which we had His Highness, St. Florian, Huron, Victory, Yorkville Belle, Dagonet, Tammany and several others whose names I can't at the moment recall. Of course, they have beaten each other, which, as a rule, I admit is sufficient to cause one to doubt their class, but there are exceptions to every rule, and this year, I think, is an exception just as 1891, when the above-named beat each other almost as frequently as those of this year have done."

"While the statement is made that our metropolitan tracks are harder and consequently faster this year than ever before, the time shown in their work, as well as in their races, by several of our despised two-year-olds, would seem to indicate that a number of them are exceedingly fast. Mesmerist's performances with stiff weights up speak for themselves and there are few that will deny that he is a colt of high class. Chacornac, the Futurity winner, has as yet to demonstrate that he is a weight carrier, but on his conformation he should be, and both he and Mesmerist should prove three-year-olds of the first rank. High Order, Missionary, Pupit, Killashandra, Windmere, His Royal Highness, Maribert, Prince of Melbourne, Gonfalon and Saudace, I am inclined to believe considerably above the average. However, this is simply my opinion, and another year will prove or disprove the correctness of my view."—Spirit of the Times.

Captain Rees is a racing judge of keen observation and he believes in the everlasting banishment for turf crooks. Captain Rees is never hasty about taking action, believing in the David Crockett axiom of "Be sure you're right and then go ahead," but when he does make a ruling he is willing to stand by it to the end. Take the case of jockey Johnny McDonald for an example. He was suspended by Captain Rees at Hawthorne last fall for several suspicious rides. Hughey Jones had first call on McDonald at the time, but the boy was riding for Brewer Schorr when suspended. Jones tried in every possible manner to have Captain Rees reinstate the boy, but the famous racing judge paid no attention whatever to the various "pulls" and "drags" manipulated in behalf of jockey McDonald. Jones was determined to have the boy reinstated, however, and finally succeeded in getting the Turf Congress Board of Appeals to give McDonald another chance.—St. Louis Sporting News.

Meeting Mr. W. S. Barnes a few days ago we asked him if it was a secret the price he sold Maid of Balgowan for to Mr. E. C. Tipton and what were his reasons for selling her. This was his reply: "I sold her for $6,500 cash and the check passed through the Central Bank of this city in payment. The foal by her side is a half brother to Prince of Melbourne and is a good one and I retained this foal. She is a good mare. I gave $100 for her and sold $4,250 worth of colts out of her. I retained two of her daughters for the stud. I still own them, and in addition I have the colt she foaled this spring. I considered the price a good one and let her go. I hope and believe she will make a success in England. She was stunted to Ben Brush this spring through the courtesy of Mr. James R. Keene, who presented me with a season."—The Thoroughbred Record.

One of the best bred lots of thoroughbred mares which ever left this country were shipped to England Saturday, September 9, by the Fasig-Tipton Company, who purchased them for a gentleman whose name was not made public but probably Marcus Daly.

The following is the list:

Maid of Balgowan (dam of Prince of Melbourne), br. m, 10, by Hindoo—Ballet, bred to Ben Brush.

Puritan Lass (dam of Tillo), b. m, 10, by Spendthrift—Phoebe Mayflower, bred to Wawekus.

Workmate (dam of Ben Eder), b. m, 12, by Bulwark—Longmate, bred to Fonso.

Anna Gray (dam of Side Partner), b. m, 10, by Free Knight—Alice Gray, by Enquirer. Alice Gray is an own sister to Mannie Gray, dam of Domino and granddam of Hamburg.

Pocahontas, b. m, 8, by Duke of Montrose—Heleva, by Iroquois.

Lola Dell, b. m, 6, by Hanover—Meriden, by Billet.

If Mr. Croker really wants some material that will bring glory and profit to the "Yale blue with gold tassels," he should purchase T. C. McDowell's trio of three-year-olds, Batten, Rush and Spirituelle. It would mean the investment of considerable money, still in the end it would pay better than dicker with selling platers. It is said W. C. Whitney is thinking of adding the three to his string that will be raced in England next season. If he is, it is pretty certain that he will secure them, for Mr. Whitney will not let price stand in the way of any plans he has in contemplation with his stable.—New York Journal.

Trainer A. J. Joyner, who has been engaged to train Pierre Lorillard's American stable next year, has denied the statement that Mr. Lorillard has any intention of taking Jockey Dan Maher to England. Maher has signed a contract to ride for Mr. Lorillard and his services will be needed here, because Mr. Lorillard will take the field with one of the strongest stables on the American turf. Besides Maribert, David Garrick and the Chamberlain, Mr. Lorillard's three high-priced 2-year-olds, which will be 3-year-olds next year, the Rancocas turfman will have a big string of 2-year-olds in training. He has twenty-three yearlings and Joyner will take the pick of them. These yearlings are by Sensation, The Sailor Prince and Locohatchie, out of the best brood mares on the Rancocas farm. They are all well engaged in the rich races to be run about the metropolitan tracks.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The directors of the Western Turf Association have decided to construct a six-furlong straightaway at Tanforan Park, which it is proposed to make the fastest three-quarters in the world. It will be made wide enough to permit the starting of twenty or twenty-five horses without the slightest inconvenience. The straightaway course will be used principally for the 2-year-old races, so there will be no interference, as in the case on a circular track.

With the closing of the Fort Erie track Messrs. Bennett and Austin dropped out of the Farmer-Hendrie syndicate. Bennett and Austin have been conducting the betting rings at the various tracks on the Canadian Circuit, but on account of a disagreement over the Windsor meeting they withdrew their interests and will not have anything to do with the betting privileges at that track.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Edward Corrigan shipped from Lexington Tuesday the remainder of his thoroughbreds. Corrigan's horses go direct to California via Chicago. He recently sold Riley and the majority of his brood mares to Applegate & McMeekin, and with this shipment he discontinues his breeding interests in Kentucky.

Col. Hugh R. Baker will ship C. C. Maffitt's string to Latonia Friday. Jockey Southard will accompany the string to the Cincinnati track. Colonel Baker intends to take nine horses to Latonia, including Fireside, Gibraltar, Orie II, Sir Rolla and Tom Collins. The yearlings will be left here.—St. Louis Republic.

W. B. Jennings has engaged jockey George Odom, the best lightweight on the American turf, to ride for him at San Francisco the coming winter. Jennings' string is headed by the sensational sprinter Bendoran. Odom is to ride for the Whitney-Paget string next year at a retainer of $10,000.

Arthur Newsom has arrived at Latonia with Middleton & Jungbluth's stable. Hardy Durham is another recent arrival at Latonia from Chicago. Jockey Jesse Mathews, who rides for Durham, has gone to his home in Indiana for a short rest, prior to the opening of the Latonia meeting.

The great race mare Imp has a terrific appetite. She eats twelve quarts of oats at a feed, and, like most great horses, she is as big a glutton at her food as she is in her work. Her behavior around the stable is perfect. She sleeps soundly until six in the morning.

Crusader is the name bestowed on Imp's half brother that will be introduced to the racing world next year. He is by Palestine—Fondling and is said to have given satisfactory evidence of possessing a high measure of the electric speed that has made Imp so famous.

As a result of the sale at the Fort Erie race-track Tuesday the following horses went to new owners: Pharoah to George Hendrie, $550; Cattle King to E. S. Gardner, $400; Tampion to George Hendrie, $275; Bertha E. to M. Davis, $75, and Kalala to W. McDaniels, $25.

Imp did a good trial at Sheepshead Bay Wednesday. With Pete Clay in the saddle the Suburban and Brighton Handicap winner was sent the mile and a quarter route in 2:11. The mile was reeled off in 1:43, and the great black racer showed to advantage throughout the trip.

Sir Gattian is back again in Abe Cahn's stable. The Victory, three-year-old, has been gelded, and his owner thinks he will make a useful performer next season.

The Fort Erie judge suspended jockey Flint indefinitely for an unsatisfactory ride on Branch in the first race Wednesday.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A Lexington dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune yesterday says: "It is reported here tonight that Hon. W. C. Whitney and Mr.
James R. Keene are soon to break up their breeding studs in Kentucky. Both ex secretary Whitney and Mr. Keene lease farms in this county, the former at the present time having his horses at La Belle Stud and the latter at Castleton Farm. Mr. Whitney's stud has just been completed and is now in a fair way to become a factor in the breeding industry. His list of broodmares at first numbered but forty,
but now he has there some seventy-five mares, the pick of the country, a large number of them having been added this season by purchase through Shelby T. Harbison, Mr. Whitney's Kentucky representative. In the stud he has Meddler, Lissak and Plaudit. No reasons are assigned for discontinuing breeding in Kentucky other than it is so far from Mr.
Whitney's other business interests that it is impossible for him to look after his horses and enjoy discussing their blood lines with friends in their paddocks. It is stated that Mr. Whitney has leased Stony Ford property and will remove his entire stud to that place. Mr.
Keene has never been thoroughly satisfied with Castleton, although there is not a farm in Kentucky of a more magnificent appearance.
He has in the stud some 200 brood mares and nearly a dozen stallions, including the great Kingston, Tournament, St. Leonards, Chorister, Horsecope and St. Saviour. It is stated he has about completed negotiations for the Withers farm, owned by the Thompsons, at Red Bank, N. J. This is one of the best improved farms in New Jersey, and is within easy reach of New York, where the business interests of the Keenes are. If Kentucky loses these two establishments the thoroughbred breeding industry will have received a severe blow."

P. Tomlinson will not attempt to train his great two-year-old, The Conqueror. The colt had to be thrown out of training after his race in the Junior Championship Stakes at the Fair Grounds on account of a cracked hoof.
This trouble has now entirely disappeared, but on account of the lateness of the season Tomlinson has concluded to turn the colt out at Memphis and give him a chance to develop into a big three-year-old. The Conqueror is a brown colt by Sir Dixon—Repeat, dam of Kensington.
Tomlinson has a band of promising yearlings in his barn at the Fair Grounds. One of them, a filly by Sir Dixon, is said to be the fastest yearling shown at the track this fall—St. Louis Republic.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

APPEALS DECIDED.

The Committee on Appeals of the American

Turf Congress has rendered the following decisions in cases appealed from various members of the Turf Congress. The most important case is that affecting jockey Rose and employer W. Clancy. The decision is as follows:

In the controversy between J. J. Smith and W. Clancy, over the services of the boy Lee Rose, the committee rendered the following opinion:
"In the case of the jockey Lee Andrew Rose, we are of the opinion that J. J. Smith is legally entitled to his services, and it is ordered that W. Clancy be fined $100 and relinquish his claim upon the boy; and it is further ordered that the jockey Rose be notified to at once return to the service of J. J. Smith."

At the spring meeting of the Louisville Jockey Club W. Gallagher, part owner of the b. c. Patron, 4 year-old, by Patron—Made, entered said horse in a race to be run on May 4th, and after time to declare Gallagher requested the judges, C. F. Price and L. P. Tarlton, to excuse the horse. After an examination of the horse and being fully satisfied that he was not lame, as claimed by Gallagher, the judges ordered Gallagher to start the horse, Gallagher refused to do so and the judges ruled Gallagher and the horse off. The Committee on Appeals sustained the judges.

In the controversy between F. M. Arthur and the Queen City Jockey Club over the payment of out-ance fees, the committee decided that the Queen City Jockey Club was entitled to the $55 held by the Chicago Racing Association.

The case of James Robinson, who was ruled off last winter by the Crescent City Jockey Club, was referred back to said club for action.

Winner—B. c. by Oddfellow—Chantrea.
Off at the first break to a fair start. Won hand ridden, but out to the last ounce; second and third were coming their best. The Rush was well ridden and seemed to like the going. He was lucky at that to beat Brownie Anderson. The latter was the best. She got away poorly, had bad racing luck in general, and was brought through the deepest going in the stretch. Yolococo made a good show. Florinel II. showed a lot of speed, but she and Orletta raced each other to defeat in the first half. Frangible appeared to have a winning chance at the head of the stretch, but stopped as if short. It was a very tired lot at the finish. Pink Jacket got away from jockey Ransch on the way to the post and ran a mile before he could be stopped. The colt eventually bolted out of the paddock gate and gave the boy a nasty looking fall. No serious damage was done, however.
The Rush, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Brownie Anderson, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Yolococo, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—Ch. f. by Folsco—Eva S.
Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third were doing their best. Fantasy broke running, had speed to loan and spreadeagled her field. She won running away. Owybee showed plenty of speed but could never get near the leader. The Geezer got shut off down the backstretch. Shotbelt ran a good race and Andes a bad one. Burns eased the latter up at the end. Prince of Orange was all tangled up at the start and ran a better race than the figures show. It was a very bad lot.
Scratched—14568 Falsotto Jr., 94; 14578 Schanker, 94.

Winner—Br. g. by Powhattan—Finical.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second driving to the limit; third easily. Tappan, under an indifferent ride, ran a good race. This is a good, honest horse and at home in the mud. Tulane awoke suddenly. In his last previous race a common maiden like Ramlet beat him away off. Hittick is probably hardly ready. This race will do him good. The ride on Monongah was a nightmare. Patterson got shut off at every occasion and did everything but fall off. Isabey would not extend himself. He is a has-been.

Winner—Ch. b. by Pardee—Ontstetp.
Off at the first break to a good start for all but Truxillo. Won very easily at the end after early punishment; second and third were doing their best. Molo was at his best and made a show of his field. Had Intriguer not been interfered with on the first turn he would have been a keen contender. As it was he ran a good race. Ruskin dislikes a route. He quit badly in the run home. Jennie F. did well as far as she went. So did McAlburt, but he did not go very far.
